

JONATHAN C. DUNN

Education:

- M.A. in Economics, 1992; B.A. in Economics, 1984; University of Maryland at College Park
- Research student; London School of Economics, 1987-88

Professional experience:

IMF

- IMF Resident Representative to Lao PDR and Vietnam, August 2015
- Deputy Division Chief and mission chief for Tajikistan, 2012-15
- Deputy Division Chief and mission chief for Maldives, 2011-12
- Senior Economist and mission chief for Fiji, 2010-11
- IMF Resident Representative, Bangladesh, 2004-2009
- IMF Resident Representative, Georgia, 2001-2004
- IMF Resident Representative, Nigeria, 2000-2001
- IMF Resident Representative, Azerbaijan, 1997-2000
- IMF desk economist; Kyrgyz Republic, Nepal, Ukraine, and Vietnam; 1993-97

Other

- Graduate Fellow—The Brookings Institution
- Graduate Assistant and Lecturer, University of Maryland at College Park
- Trade and Macro Economist, Econometrica International Inc., Washington DC

Key competencies:

- Management and team leadership
- Macroeconomic, financial and political risk analysis
- High-level negotiation and representation
- Outreach and press relations
- Teaching
- Budgeting

Country experience (work and residence):

- Afghanistan, Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Ethiopia, Fiji, Georgia, India, Kyrgyz Republic, Lao PDR, Maldives, Nepal, Nigeria, Tajikistan, Ukraine, United Kingdom, USA, Vietnam

Languages:

- English (native)
- Russian (fluent)
- French (beginner)

Papers and publications:

- "The Caucasus and Central Asia: Transitioning to Emerging Markets," Middle East and Central Asia Departmental Paper 14/02, International Monetary Fund, April 2014.
- "Export Diversification and External Competitiveness," (with Matt Davies), Country Report 08/335, International Monetary Fund, October 2008.
- "The Ready-Made Garment Industry in Bangladesh: An Update," Country Report 07/230, International Monetary Fund, July 2007.
- "Growth in Bangladesh," Country Report 05/242, International Monetary Fund, July 2005.
- "In the Pipeline: Georgia's Oil and Gas Transit Revenues" (with Andreas Billmeier and Bert van Selm), Working Paper 04/209, International Monetary Fund, November 2004.
- "Investment in Non-Oil Sectors in Azerbaijan: Developments, Problems and Prospects," SM/99/142, International Monetary Fund, June 1999.
- "Monetary Policy" in Peter Cornelius and Patrick Lenain, ed., Ukraine: Accelerating the Transition to Market, International Monetary Fund, 1997.